COMPENSATION ADEQUACY REVIEW FORM

1. Is the pastor's salary below, same as, or above the Presbytery's minimum requirements?
2. Does the pastor's salary take into account the following factors: membership size, the church's mission, the life experience and/or ministry experience the pastor brings, and the pastor's job performance?
3. Is the pastor's housing allowance sufficient in securing and maintaining a residence in the church's particular economic locale?
4. If a manse is provided, has the Session's building and property representatives inspected the manse and made the necessary repairs/improvements to maintain adequate housing for the pastor?
5. Does the utilities allowance cover the cost of utilities?
6. Does the car allowance cover the costs of the mileage of the pastor in her/his work?
7. Is the continuing education allowance adequate in covering the costs of the pastor's continuing education and is the study leave adequate to meet the goals of the pastor and the congregation?
8. What other allowances and/or items of compensation need to be reviewed?
9. Does the Session need help in answering these questions from the Presbytery's Church Professional Task Force before the Session makes its recommendations to the congregation?
