INTRODUCTION OF FIRST TIMERS AND GUESTS

Those who were attending a Presbytery meeting for the first time or were guests were introduced.

APPOINTMENT OF RECORDING CLERK

Stated Clerk Phil Barrett announced that RE Laura Silverthorn, Clerk of Session, for the Winterset church, as Recording Clerk for this meeting.

WELCOME BY HOST CHURCH

TE Jim Howland, pastor of the host church, welcomed the Presbytery, telling about the great history of the congregation since its beginning in 1854. He explained why the church's name includes "United." Jim also shared information about the congregation's major mission project – the Hope Home.

WORSHIP

The Presbytery entered into a time of worship based on the theme of: Love - The More Excellent Way, an appropriate theme for Valentine's Day. TE Jim Howland, RE Jon Kimple (Dallas Center, First) and TE Don Elly (HR) were liturgists for the day. Using passages from I Corinthians, TE Adam Smith (Dallas Center, First) shared a sermon on Love From Above. Adam shared that love is messy and tough, but that Paul pulls us out of this to emphasize the greatness of God's love. Adam noted that we tend to separate this God-type of love from what goes on in our lives, but that God's love transcends earth and is constant. Paul invites us into the way of God's love, a love that doesn't tear us apart, instead it brings us together. TE Jim Howland administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Judy Roby and Connie Banks (Winterset, First United) were the musicians for the day.

The Presbytery VOTED to move the Stated Clerk's Report and the CROSS Ministries Report to after lunch.

BUDGET AND FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORT

TE Kirsten Klepfer, Moderator of the Committee, presented the Report.

Kirsten reported that the Presbytery has done well with its finances in 2014, and that the Committee will continue to watch income and expense. She also reported that we are still waiting for 2015 Mission Pledges from some congregations.

Kirsten introduced the recommendations coming to the Presbytery from the Committee. They are all related to the Cottage Grove Presbyterian Mission Center and will help the Presbytery move ahead with the process and funding for the Mission Center project.

The Committee reported taking the following actions:

- D-A-6 Granted permission to the First Presbyterian Church of Centerville, IA to sell its manse.
- D-A-7 Granted permission to the United Christian Presbyterian Church of Bedford, IA to sell its manse.

The Presbytery VOTED to approve the following Recommendations:

- D-R-6 That the Presbytery Office at 2400 86th Street, Suite 20, Urbandale be moved to the Cottage Grove Presbyterian Mission Center, 1050 24th Street, Des Moines. The Budget and Finance Committee, in consultation with the Leadership Council, Personnel Committee, and Cottage Grove Covenant Council, will decide the dates of the move.
- D-R-7 That the Budget and Finance Committee be empowered to list and sell the current Presbytery Office at 2400 86th Street, Suite 20, Urbandale, IA.
- D-R-8 That the funds from the sale of the office be used for the Cottage Grove Presbyterian Mission Center project, at the discretion of the Cottage Grove Covenant Council.

Rationale:

1. The Cottage Grove Administrative Commission's recommendations regarding the Mission Center were overwhelmingly approved by the Presbytery in June, 2014. The Commission identified as key to the success of the project the moving of the Presbytery Office to the Mission Center at the Cottage Grove church building. Because of this, the Operations Team of the Covenant Council has been working under the assumption that the offices would be moved.
2. The Operations Team of the Mission Center has been working with the architects, contractor and public historian, and continues to consult with the Presbytery staff, to prepare the building to accommodate the Presbytery Office.
3. The Presbytery has declared by its decision to establish a Mission Center in the Cottage Grove building that the Mission Center will be a significant mission of the Presbytery. Moving the offices to that location is a tangible demonstration of the Presbytery's commitment to that building and the mission that is, and will be, carried out there.
4. Housing the Presbytery Office in the Cottage Grove Presbyterian Mission Center demonstrates to the larger community its commitment to, and leadership of, this effort. This will be vital in order to enlist the additional financial support that will be needed from beyond the Presbyterian denomination. Outside donors will want to be assured of the Presbytery's commitment before making a contribution.

D-R-9 That $100,000 of the Knox Knolls Camping Fund be changed to unrestricted.

Rationale:

1. The recommendations of the Cottage Grove Administrative Commission are meant, in part, to bring the Presbytery to a more financially sustainable position. However, there are significant up-front costs to getting the Mission Center up and running.
2. The Presbytery does not currently have the funds necessary in unrestricted accounts to meet the up-front needs of the project.
3. The Knox Knolls Fund came from the sale of the Knox Knolls Camp and the Presbytery voted on May 15, 1990 that the interest on the investment be used $\frac{3}{4}$ for camping and related uses and $\frac{1}{4}$ for other Presbytery causes. At that time, the camping ministry of our Presbytery was significant. While we still have need for this fund, that need has diminished. The \$252,917 that will remain in the fund will be sufficient to support our current level of camping activity.
4. This money will give the Presbytery the flexibility needed to insure timely completion of the Cottage Grove Presbyterian Mission Center.

D-10 That the Covenant Council have the authority to use that $100,000 as they see fit, with the understanding that once the office sells the $100,000 will be returned to the Presbytery operating fund.

The Presbytery Voted to amend the phrase “Presbytery operating fund” with “Knox Knolls fund” in the Recommendation and Rationale.

Rationale:

1. The funds from the sale of the Presbytery Office are part of the financing plan for the Cottage Grove Presbyterian Mission Center. The Covenant Council estimates that the Presbytery Office will sell for approximately $100,000.
2. Those funds are needed in the first phase of the project to do necessary work on the building while the fundraising campaign is going on, but the office may not be sold during that first phase.
3. The Presbytery does not meet again until June and the Operational Group and Covenant Council need financial flexibility in the meantime if the project is going to continue without delay.
4. This will have no long-term impact on the operating funds on the operating funds of the Presbytery, as funds from the sale of the office will be returned to the Knox Knolls account when the office is sold.

Also provided to the Presbytery were the 2014 Income and Expense Reports, Consolidated Statement of Financial Position and Restricted Funds report, all as of December 31, 2014. (These Reports appear as Appendix A at the end of these Minutes.)

ORDER OF THE DAY

The docketed time having arrived for Part I of the Report of the Bills and Overtures Task Group, the Order of the day was called, thus moving the rest of the reports docketed for the morning to the early afternoon.

BILLS AND OVERTURES TASK GROUP REPORT – I

TE Ann Johnson and RE Ted Coppock, commissioners to the 221st General Assembly of the PC(USA), presented the report.

The Presbytery was informed that consideration of Proposed Amendments 14-1 and 14-F would be considered separately from each other and the other Proposed Amendments.

Ann Johnson reported on the process that has led to the consideration of adding the Belhar Confession to the Constitution of the PC(USA) and the rationale for recommending approval.

Ted Coppock reported on the process and experience that has led to Proposed Amendment 14-F being before the denomination for approval.

LUNCH

The Presbytery recessed for a delicious lunch provided by the host church. TE Jim Howland offered a blessing for the meal.

APPENDIX BB – COTTAGE GROVE PRESBYTERIAN MISSION CENTER REPORT*February 14, 2015*OVERVIEW:

The Cottage Grove Presbyterian Mission Center continues to take shape in many promising ways, all because of the leadership of many committed volunteers, our Sudanese worshipping groups, the CROSS staff, building professionals and our new custodian, Dan Mowry. The Mission Center is in a building that is already beginning to show signs of its original and majestic self.

OUR VISION STATEMENT:

The Covenant Council envisions the Cottage Grove Presbyterian Mission Center as A WELCOMING, SAFE and SACRED place, providing HELP and HOPE to those in need, space for WORSHIP, and opportunities for COMMUNITY SHARING.

The Council is committed to creating a mission center that will be a vibrant, functional home for two Sudanese worshipping groups, CROSS Ministries, the offices of the Presbytery of Des Moines, and other community organizations that share this vision.

PROGRESS TO DATE:

A massive Clean-Up Day with more than 75 volunteers of all ages descended on Cottage Grove Church, Saturday, Nov. 22, and began its transformation into the Cottage Grove Presbyterian Mission Center. The crew represented 11 congregations and, by the end of the day, the facility was clean and ready for its next stage.

Critical maintenance of the Cottage Grove building to ensure the furnace, plumbing and electricity is in working order has been achieved, much to the credit of our new custodian.

An innovative and functional building lay out for the new Mission Center has been drawn up by the architects, reflecting input from the CROSS staff, the Sudanese worshipping groups, the Presbytery staff, and planners for future non-profit tenants (Expect further details at Presbytery)

Our public historian has begun the extensive process to secure State Historic tax credits that will generate 25% of the needed revenue for the planned renovations. In addition, work has begun to place the Cottage Grove building on the historic registry.

The contractor is currently coordinating all cost estimates relating to the renovation plan in order to help establish a feasible financial goal for the fundraising campaign.

NEXT STEPS:

- Finalize the cost estimates for the building renovations, based on the building layout.
- Complete the business plan and case statement in preparation for the fundraising campaign.
- Complete building upgrades necessary to accommodate the Presbytery offices.
- Continue the community networking already begun, as well as identify and approach nonprofits that would be potential tenants for the building.

Respectfully Submitted,
Ginny Hancock, moderator

V – CROSS MINISTRIES REPORTAPPENDIX C*February 14, 2015*WHO WE ARE:

We were formed in the mid-1970s CROSS Ministries, a nonprofit social service agency operating in Polk County under the auspices of the Presbytery of Des Moines, has grown every year of its nearly 40 years of existence. Today CROSS Ministries serves thousands of men, women, and children annually.

We are proud to report that in 2014 CROSS was able to rise to meet the growing need assisting with 17,000 acts of service, representing an increase of 37% over the year prior! People assisted include the under-employed single mother struggling to make ends meet in a challenging economy; the disabled person living on social security benefits that barely covers the rent leaving nothing left to deal with an emergency need; people who are experiencing mental illness; newly returned veterans as well as those whose wars raged long ago but linger in their hearts and minds; refugees and immigrants trying to find their way in a new world; people who have recently lost their employment or experienced dramatically reduced work hours; and the families with young children who are facing evictions or the loss of their utility services.

OUR MISSION:

- To prevent homelessness and to provide food and other basic survival needs to people in crisis.
- To advocate for changing social, economic, and political systems which perpetuate poverty and oppression.
- To create a vision of justice and provide educational opportunities to churches, organizations, and the community, concerning the plight of the poor.

UPCOMING FUNDRAISER:

Saturday, April 18 at 7:00 PM the Social Justice Committee of Westminster Presbyterian Church will present a Trivia Night, Silent Auction, and Oral Auction Fundraiser with 100% of the proceeds to benefit CROSS Ministries. More information will follow! Donations of auction items are currently being requested. To donate items or for more information contact: Rev. Michelle Parsons, email: mparsons@westpres.org or phone (515) 274-1534.

A BIG THANK YOU:

We'd like to thank the Presbytery of Des Moines and its member congregations, Iowa Finance Authority, Prairie Meadows, Des Moines Community Foundation, Plymouth Congregational Church, and the many private donors for their financial support in 2014 as well as food donations from the Des Moines Area Religious Council's Move the Food, area grocery stores, farmers markets, and gardeners. Special thanks to the volunteers who are the foundation of our organization providing thousands of hours of dedicated labor each year.

Respectfully submitted,
Roberta Victor, executive director

Proposed Amendments to the Constitution

14-1 Confession of Belhar

Shall the Confession of Belhar be included in the Book of Confessions?

Brief Description

You are referred to the complete text of the Confession of Belhar and the accompanying Biblical citations found in the booklet containing all of the proposed amendments to the constitution published by the Office of General Assembly. A synopsis of the background and rationale regarding the Confession of Belhar is found in that booklet as well.

Assembly Action

The vote of the Assembly Committee on Theological Issues and Institutions and CE (13) to approve the proposed amendment was 46/6/0. The 221st General Assembly (2014) approved the committee’s recommendation 551/87/0.

(The complete text of this Confession appears following the section related to Amendment 14-E.)

Amendment 14-A.
Renunciation of Jurisdiction
on Amending G-2.0509 (Item 06-05)

Brief Description

The amendment seeks to prevent a teaching elder who is in the midst of a formal judicial process from renouncing jurisdiction and then continuing to work or volunteer in the church. There was concern that the church may remain vulnerable due to a lack of information regarding the circumstances and facts of the case.

Assembly Action

The vote of the Assembly Committee on Church Polity and Order Ministry (06) on the proposed amendment was 48/7/2. The 221st General Assembly (2014) approved the committee's recommendation by a vote of 309/297/0.

Arguments Supporting an Affirmative Vote

- When a teaching elder avoids the disciplinary process by renouncing jurisdiction and then is allowed to serve the church, what does that say to his or her victim? Where is the justice, the opportunity for the victim to heal? The church has an obligation to help the victim to heal.
- The disciplinary process is designed to protect all parties involved as it seeks to serve justice and bring the body of Christ back to health. When the accused leaves the process by renouncing jurisdiction, the process cannot work.
- Renunciation is the abandonment of the church. Someone who has abandoned the church should not be able to work for it.

Arguments Supporting a Negative Vote

- When a teaching elder renounces jurisdiction, he or she is no longer a member of the PC(USA) and therefore is not under its jurisdiction. The proposed amendment attempts to extend the church's jurisdiction over someone who is not under its jurisdiction.
- The proposed amendment would inappropriately place a provision of the disciplinary process in the Form of Government instead of the Rules of Discipline where it would more appropriately belong.
- There are times when the accused renounces jurisdiction not because he or she is guilty but because he or she does not want to subject himself, herself, or others to a trial. This proposed amendment has the potential for punishing someone who is not guilty.
- It would be difficult to enforce the proposed amendment, particularly if the former teaching elder relocates.
- The church's Constitution is about the "what" not the "who" or the "how" of process. Policies such as the one described in this proposed amendment should be in a council's manual of operation or personnel policies, not in the church's constitution.
- Councils already have the authority to act as this proposed amendment suggests. Indeed they have the responsibility to take due diligence through background checks of those who work for the congregation whether paid or not.
- The basis for this proposed amendment assumes that the accused is likely to repeat the alleged misbehavior. It may have been a one-time offence.
- The action committed by the accused may after a period of time no longer be contrary to the Constitution.
- This proposed amendment too narrowly and unfairly focuses on teaching elders. What about ruling elders or deacons who renounce jurisdiction during the disciplinary process?

Amendment 14-B
Special Committee to Review the Preparation for Ministry Process
and Standard Ordination Exams (Item 06-12)

Brief Description

The 220th (2012) General Assembly referral: On Reevaluating the Process by Which Ordination Exams Are Written, Administered, and Graded, resulted in the formation of a Special Committee. From that Special Committee came these two proposed amendments (Item 06-12, recommendations 11 and 12). Recommendation 11 seeks to distinguish the standard ordination examinations from examination by presbyteries for ordination as well making it clear that candidates are accountable to their presbytery of care. It also makes clear that standard exams are evaluated by written comments but are not graded. Recommendation 12 changes the title of the paragraph to address the perception of some that being an exception is prejudicial in and of itself. The changes intend to clarify that presbytery minutes should include reasons for both waivers and for alternate means of assessment.

14-B.1. Final Assessment
On Amending G-2.0607 (Item 06-12, Recommendation 11)

Assembly Action

The vote of the Assembly Committee on Church Polity and Ordered Ministry (06) on the proposed amendment was 54/0/0. The 221st General Assembly (2014) approved the committee's recommendation 578/41/0.

Arguments in Support of an Affirmative Vote

- This proposal eliminates any specific reference to seminary grades as a consideration for a Committee for the Preparation for Ministry to certify a candidate ready to receive a call.
- It also clarifies that the presbytery approving a candidate's readiness must be the presbytery of care, not the calling presbytery or some other presbytery.

Arguments in Support of a Negative Vote

- None were noted.

14-B.2. Accommodations
On Amending G-2.0610 (Item 06-12, Recommendation 12)

Assembly Action

The vote of the Assembly Committee on Church Polity (06) on the proposed amendment was 42/0/0. The 221st General Assembly (2014) approved the committee's recommendation by voice vote.

Arguments in Support of an Affirmative Vote

- The reporter commented that this proposal, as tweaked by the committee, is mostly word-smithing.

Arguments in Support of a Negative Vote

- None

Amendment 14-C.
Child Protection Policy
On Amending G-3.0106 (Item 08-14)

Brief Description

The proposed amendment originated from the Advocacy Committee for Women’s Concerns and would require that all councils of the church adopt and implement a child protection policy.

Assembly Action

The vote of the Assembly Committee on Mission Coordination (08) on the proposed amendment was 69/0/0. The 221st General Assembly (2014) approved the committee’s recommendation by a vote of 554/18/0.

Arguments Supporting an Affirmative Vote

- There was an impassioned speech by an overture advocate and then a sharing by one of the committee members of his own sexual abuse.

Arguments in Support of a Negative Vote

- None

Amendment 14-D.
Minimum Composition of a Presbytery
On Amending G-3.0301 (Item 06-06)

Brief Description

The amendment would allow presbyteries comprised of less than ten duly constituted sessions and ten teaching elders to continue to exist upon approval by their synod and the General Assembly. The background and rationale provided by the Presbytery of Eastern Oregon emphasized that the PC(USA) is a denomination of small churches which continue to do good work within their respective communities despite their size. Mission is not dependent upon size.

Assembly Action

The vote of the Assembly Committee on Church Polity and Ordered Ministry (06) on the proposed amendment was 57/0/2. The 221st General Assembly (2014) approved the committee’s recommendation by a vote of 510/9/0.

Arguments in Support of an Affirmative Vote

- There are places in the United States where there are few PC(USA) congregations in a large geographic area (e.g., Alaska, Eastern Oregon, Idaho). Distances and remoteness present such a challenge that attempting to configure presbyteries with ten or more sessions and ten or more teaching elders is unrealistic.
- Even in those places where there are more than ten sessions, it is often difficult for there to be ten teaching elders.

Arguments in Support of a Negative Vote

- Once the original recommendation was amended to include the phrase “giving consideration to the responsibilities assigned to presbyteries in G-3.01 and G-3.03”, no arguments against the proposed amendment were voiced

Amendment 14-E.
Interreligious Stance
On Amending G-5.0102 (Item 07-02, Recommendation 2)

Brief Description

The proposed amendment originated from The General Assembly Committee on Ecumenical and Interreligious Relations as part of their recommendation to approve the policy statement, The Interreligious Stance of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). The amendment updates the language in the current section and adds a sentence regarding the interreligious stance of the PC(USA).

Assembly Action

The vote of the Assembly Committee on Ecumenical and Faith Relations on the proposed amendment was 59/4/0. The 221st General Assembly (2014) approved the committee’s recommendation by a hand vote.

Arguments in Support of an Affirmative Vote

- A well-known quote of PC(USA): “To be Presbyterian is to be ecumenical”
- The PC(USA) and its antecedent churches have been at the forefront of local, regional, national, and global ecumenism.
- This is a new statement for the PC(USA) – updating statements from prior ecumenical consultations in the UPCUSA (1981) and the PCUS (1975)
- The statement offers “guidance for how we relate to people of other religious traditions.”

Arguments in Support of a Negative Vote

- None

The Confession of Belhar

Revelation 21:6–7	We believe in the triune God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, who gathers, protects and cares for the church through Word and Spirit. This, God has done since the beginning of the world and will do to the end.
Matthew 28:19–20	We believe in one holy, universal Christian church, the communion of saints called from the entire human family.
Ephesians 2:13–20	We believe <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • that Christ’s work of reconciliation is made manifest in the church as the community of believers who have been reconciled with God and with one another;
Ephesians 4:11–16, Psalm 133	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • that unity is, therefore, both a gift and an obligation for the church of Jesus Christ; that through the working of God’s Spirit it is a binding force, yet simultaneously a reality which must be earnestly pursued and sought; one which the people of God must continually be built up to attain;
John 17:20–23	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • that this unity must become visible so that the world may believe that separation, enmity and hatred between people and groups is sin which Christ has already conquered, and accordingly that anything which threatens this unity may have no place in the church and must be resisted;
John 13:34	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • that this unity of the people of God must be manifested and be active in a variety of ways;
Colossians 3:12–16	* in that we love one another;

- Philippians 2:1–5 * that we experience, practice and pursue community with one another;
- 1 Corinthians 1:10–13 * that we are obligated to give ourselves willingly and joyfully to be of benefit and blessing to one another;
- Ephesians 4:1–6 * that we share one faith, have one calling, are of one soul and one mind;
- 1 Corinthians 10:16–17 * have one God and Father, are filled with one Spirit, are baptized with one baptism, eat of one bread and drink of one cup, confess one name, are obedient to one Lord, work for one cause, and share one hope;
- Ephesians 3:18–20 * together come to know the height and the breadth and the depth of the love of Christ;
- Galatians 6:2 * together are built up to the stature of Christ, to the new humanity;
- 2 Corinthians 1:3–4 * together know and bear one another’s burdens, thereby fulfilling the law of Christ;
- 1 Corinthians 12:24b–28, Ephesians 3:14–20 * that we need one another and upbuild one another, admonishing and comforting one another;
- 1 Corinthians 12:4–11, Romans 12:3–8 * that we suffer with one another for the sake of righteousness; pray together; together serve God in this world; and together fight against all which may threaten or hinder this unity;
- Galatians 3:27–29 • that this unity can be established only in freedom and not under constraint; that the variety of spiritual gifts, opportunities, backgrounds, convictions, as well as the various languages and cultures, are by virtue of the reconciliation in Christ, opportunities for mutual service and enrichment within the one visible people of God;
- Galatians 3:27–29 • that true faith in Jesus Christ is the only condition for membership of this church.

Therefore, we reject any doctrine

- which absolutizes either natural diversity or the sinful separation of people in such a way that this absolutization hinders or breaks the visible and active unity of the church, or even leads to the establishment of a separate church formation;
- which professes that this spiritual unity is truly being maintained in the bond of peace while believers of the same confession are in effect alienated from one another for the sake of diversity and in despair of reconciliation;
- which denies that a refusal earnestly to pursue this visible unity as a priceless gift is sin;
- which explicitly or implicitly maintains that descent or any other human or social factor should be a consideration in determining membership of the church.

We believe

- 2 Corinthians 5:17–21 • that God has entrusted the church with the message of reconciliation in and through Jesus Christ;
- Matthew 5:9, 13–16; 2 Peter 3:13; Revelation 21:1–5 • that the church is called to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world, that the church is called blessed because it is a peacemaker, that the church is witness both by word and by deed to the new heaven and the new earth in which righteousness dwells;
- Romans 6:12–14, • that God’s life-giving Word and Spirit has conquered the powers of sin

- Colossians 1:11–14 and death, and therefore also of irreconciliation and hatred, bitterness and enmity, that God’s life-giving Word and Spirit will enable the church to live in a new obedience which can open new possibilities of life for society and the world;
- James 2:8–9
- that the credibility of this message is seriously affected and its beneficial work obstructed when it is proclaimed in a land which professes to be Christian, but in which the enforced separation of people on a racial basis promotes and perpetuates alienation, hatred and enmity;
 - that any teaching which attempts to legitimate such forced separation by appeal to the gospel, and is not prepared to venture on the road of obedience and reconciliation, but rather, out of prejudice, fear, selfishness and unbelief, denies in advance the reconciling power of the gospel, must be considered ideology and false doctrine.

Therefore, we reject any doctrine which, in such a situation sanctions in the name of the gospel or of the will of God the forced separation of people on the grounds of race and color and thereby in advance obstructs and weakens the ministry and experience of reconciliation in Christ.

We believe

- Isaiah 42:1–7 • that God has revealed God’s self as the one who wishes to bring about justice and true peace among people;
- Luke 6:20–26 • that God, in a world full of injustice and enmity, is in a special way the God of the destitute, the poor and the wronged;
- Luke 4:16–19 • that God calls the church to follow God in this; for God brings justice to the oppressed and gives bread to the hungry;
- Luke 7:22 • that God frees the prisoner and restores sight to the blind;
- Psalms 146 • that God supports the downtrodden, protects the stranger, helps the orphans and widows and blocks the path of the ungodly;
- James 1:27 • that for God pure and undefiled religion is to visit the orphans and the widows in their suffering;
- Micah 6:8 • that God wishes to teach the church to do what is good and to seek the right;
- Amos 5:14–15, 23–24 • that the church must therefore stand by people in any form of suffering and need, which implies, among other things, that the church must witness against and strive against any form of injustice, so that justice may roll down like waters and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream;
- Psalms 82:1–5 • that the church as the possession of God must stand where the Lord stands, namely against injustice and with the wronged;
- Leviticus 19:15 • that in following Christ the church must witness against all the powerful and privileged who selfishly seek their own interests and thus control and harm others.

Therefore, we reject any ideology which would legitimate forms of injustice and any doctrine which is unwilling to resist such an ideology in the name of the gospel.

- Acts 5:29–32;
1 Peter 3:15–18
- We believe that, in obedience to Jesus Christ, its only head, the church is called to confess and to do all these things, even though the authorities and human laws might forbid them and punishment and suffering be the consequence.
- Jesus is Lord.

To the one and only God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be the honor and the glory forever and ever.

Amendment 14-F.
Marriage
On Amending W-4.9000 (Item 10-02)

Brief Description

This overture came from the Presbytery of the Cascades with sixteen other presbyteries concurring. The proposed changes to W-4.9000 sets forth the circumstances and conditions under which a teaching elder in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) would be authorized, though not required, to act as an agent of the civil jurisdiction in recording of the marriage contract if the couple wishing to marry meet the requirements of the civil jurisdiction. The session has the authority to permit or deny the use of the church property for a marriage service.

Assembly Action

The vote of the Assembly Committee on Civil Union and Marriage Issues (10) on the proposed amendment was 49/18/0. The 221st General Assembly (2014) approved the committee's recommendation by a vote of 429/175/0.

Arguments in Support of an Affirmative Vote

- The rationale provided by the Presbytery of the Cascades was reiterated in committee
- The current non-discrimination stance in the Book of Order is not in line with the current policy on marriage
- Young people are accepting
- It gives presbyteries and churches options
- Members of the church are not full members by denying the right to marry

Arguments in Support of a Negative Vote

- The state does what it does; the church only what God blesses
- Scripture above all is firm on marriage between a man and a woman
- In favor, but not sure the time is right to amend the Book of Order
- The change will cause major crisis

Proposed Amendment 14-F

Amend W-4.9000 by striking the current text and replacing it with the following:

“Marriage is a gift God has given to all humankind for the well-being of the entire human family. Marriage involves a unique commitment between two people, traditionally a man and a woman, to love and support each other for the rest of their lives. The sacrificial love that united the couple sustains them as faithful and responsible members of the church and the wider community.

“In civil law, marriage is a contract that recognizes the rights and obligations of the married coupler in society. In the Reformed traditions, marriage is also a covenant in which God has an active part, and which the community of faith publicly witnesses and acknowledges.

“If they meet the requirements of the civil jurisdiction in which they intend to marry, a couple may request that a service of Christian marriage be conducted by a teaching elder in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), who is authorized, though not required, to act as an agent of the civil jurisdiction in recording the marriage contract. A couple requesting a service of Christian marriage shall receive instruction from the teaching elder, who may agree to the couple’s request only if, in the judgment of the teaching elder, the couple demonstrate sufficient understanding of the nature of the marriage covenant and commitment to living their lives together according to its values. In making this decision, the teaching elder may seek the counsel of session, which has authority to permit or deny the use of church property for a marriage service.

“The marriage service shall be conducted in a manner appropriate to this covenant and to the forms of Reformed worship, under the direction of the teaching elder and the supervision of the session (W1.4004-.4006). In the service of marriage, the couples marry each other by exchanging mutual promises. The teaching elder witnesses the couple/s promises and pronounces God’s blessing upon their union. The community of faith pledges to support the couple in upholding their promises; prayers may be offered for the couple, for the communities that support them, and for all who seek to live in faithfulness.

“A service of worship recognizing a civil marriage and confirming it in the community of faith may be appropriate when requested by the couple. The service will be similar to a marriage service except that the statements made shall reflect the fact that the couple is already married to one another according to the laws of the civil jurisdiction.

“Nothing herein shall compel a teaching elder to perform nor compel a session to authorize the use of church property for a marriage service that the teaching elder or the session believes is contrary to the teaching elder’s or the session’s discernment of the Holy Spirit and their understanding of the word of God.”

J – GENERAL PRESBYTER REPORT

February 14, 2015

The church isn't perfect. We all know this. After all, it's run by humans, and God knows, as do we, that anything run by humans will not be perfect. Oh, God knows we try to make it near perfect, but we fall short. There are as many opinions as there are people in a church on what needs to be done to make it a better place and members in it better people.

I came across an interesting piece by Tim Cool, who writes a blog entitled, Cool Conversations. One of his recent blogs was If I Could Change One Thing About "Church". Here's what he says:

"I was recently leading a workshop for a conference in Texas on Organizational Culture and how it communicates a story. As part of the Q & A time, I was asked a question I have never been asked before. It caught me a little flatfooted, but got my mind racing.

"The question was – "If you could change one thing in 'church' today, what would it be?"

"Wow - what a loaded question. I mused while my mind tried to function like Tiahe-2, the world's fastest computer. The bytes were flashing through my head so fast you could almost see smoke coming from my ears. I was processing things like:

- Stop world hunger
- Stop all wars
- Stop injustice
- Stop bickering on Bible Translations
- Elimination of red carpet and purple pews in churches
- The unification of denominations
- etc, etc, etc.

"My thoughts ranged from altruistic to humanitarian to downright outrageous.

"But then it hit me with clarity I have rarely experienced.

"We had just completed a discussion on being contextual...abandoning the unproductive rhetoric of "contemporary vs. traditional". That discussion, about contemporary or traditional, is really a treatise on personal preference...which is actually a form of an "ism"... "me-ism."

"That was it!!! That is the one thing I would change if I could. I would eradicate "me-ism".

"According to Wikipedia, me-ism is defined as "focused on, or obsession, with oneself." Another website says it is "the error of exaggerating the value of one's own point of view."

"My response became crystal clear and intentional. Whether we are debating guitars and drums vs. an organ, or the KJV vs. the NIV or NLT, or if a steeple is more spiritual than a shopping center sign, or whether we should wear ties vs. flip-flops, it is all me-ism.

These all represent personal preferences. Some based on our past experiences and others based on our current context...but they are about ME!

“Can you imagine what a different church (and world) we would live in if we could abandon our me-ism for “you-ism”, “other-ism”, and “Christ-ism”?”

“Next time you get embroiled in a silly debate about hymnals, pew color, instrumentation, when the offering should be received, tattoos, dress codes and which day to worship, step back and determine if it is merely me-ism.

“Step out and be a me-ism killer!

“P.S. This is as much for me as you. Like Paul, I am the greatest of sinners.”

Could we become individuals, families, churches, even a presbytery that covenants to eliminate me-ism from our lives and gatherings? It sure would be fun (and hard) to try.

Since we last gathered, I have been to, or involved in, a variety of places:

- Participated in a conference call of the Synod Personnel Committee (I serve as a staff resource to this committee)
- Along with Joyce Rash, met and oriented the Pastor Nominating Committee of the Heartland Church
- Met with several pastors
- Attended the Annual Christmas Gathering of our Retired Pastors at the home of Bob and Jeanne Burnett
- Attended the Annual Western Area Staff Conference in Burlingame, CA
- Met with a potential donor to the Cottage Grove Presbyterian Mission Center
- Oriented the Pastor Nominating Committee at Oskaloosa, First
- Participated in two interviews of potential pastors for one of our congregations
- Along with Betty Dyer, met with leaders, contractor and architect at the Cottage Grove Presbyterian Mission Center
- Met with the PNC at the Ankeny Church
- Met with Iowa executive/General Presbyters
- Preached at the Allerton, United and Grimes, First churches
- Along with Sue Tomlinson and Joyce Rash, attended our Synod’s Annual Com/CPM Training Event in Farmington, MN. I led 2 seminars, one with Joyce.
- Met with the Bills and Overtures Task Group

Please feel free to contact me if you would like to know anything about any of these.

As we begin another new year together, I look forward to the many opportunities we will have to be and serve together. I am always grateful for all of you and for the privilege of serving with you.

Respectfully Submitted,
Phil Barrett

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- New mission pledges have been submitted for 2015. The total amount is $6,500. Of this amount, $4,847.25 goes to PC(USA), $589.85 goes to Synod, and $1,062.90 stays in our presbytery.
- Global Mission Exchange – Denise England reported that her Caribbean experience with 24 other PWs from different synods in the US was positive, but she is still trying to process what happened on the trip. She will be available to PWs in our presbytery to share her exchange experience so you may contact her at denisengland@mchsi.com or call 515-401-2769.
- Our Presbytery will also be hosting a woman from one of the Caribbean countries visited on the Exchange for a week prior to the Churchwide Gathering. If you are interested in having her come to your church to speak or participate in your community events in June, call Ann

McGowan at 515-252-6195 or email at akmcgowan@msn.com. The visitor will also need transportation from here to Minnesota on June 17th, the day before the Gathering begins. Our presbytery has been asked to host because we were one of the largest contributors towards the Global Exchange; it will be a nice reciprocation.

- Sharon Falck and Stephanie Cornelder (Oskaloosa, First) received a quilt, the Blazing Star, at their recent visit to the Dakota Women. They attended a memorial service for a local woman. There was a big dinner and everyone received a gift; they received a bucket of jams and jellies, Indian cough medicine, and a hand-embroidered dish towel. The quilt will be a fundraiser for the PW of the Dakota Presbytery. Sharon suggested our PWs take turns displaying the quilt at their churches and then send a monetary donation from the PW. The quilted gift will be displayed at the Spring Connection.
